William Rando is Assistant Dean at the Yale Graduate School and Director of the Yale Teaching Center. For over 14 years, Dr. Rando was the Director of the McDougal Graduate Teaching Center at Yale. His new role at the Yale Teaching Center focuses on supporting teaching at the University by promoting the discussion of educational strategies, offering workshops and mentoring opportunities for University teaching faculty. The medical school as relied upon Bill for his expertise in education for many years. He collaborated with the faculty of the anatomy course in their curriculum redesign and served as an active member and contributor to the YSM Strategic Planning Committee and the Curriculum Design Committee.

ACCREDITATION
The Yale School of Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT
The YSM medical education community requested seminars on enhancement of faculty teaching and curriculum writing.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to:

• Create learning groups and teams for long and short-term activities and assignments
• Facilitate learning in groups
• Plan an effective workshop or session in a small group format
• Assess student learning outcomes when teaching with groups and teams

DESIGNATION STATEMENT
The Yale School of Medicine designates this educational activity for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

FACULTY DISCLOSURES
It is the policy of Yale School of Medicine, Continuing Medical Education, to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all its educational programs. All faculty participating as speakers in these programs are required to disclose any relevant financial relationship(s) they (or spouse or partner) have with a commercial interest that benefits the individual in any financial amount that has occurred within the past 12 months; and the opportunity to affect the content of CME about the products or services of the commercial interests. The Center for Continuing Medical Education will ensure that any conflicts of interest are resolved before the educational activity occurs.